Stockholm, September 16, O. S.

THE King of Sweden went the 7th Inſtant from Ulrickſdahl to the Palace of Ekolſund, where his Majeſty ſtill continues. The Queen remains at Ulrickſdahl, but as there has already been ſome very ſharp froſty Nights, it is thought her Majeſty will come to this City in a Day or two, and that the King will come directly hither from Ekolſund. A Declaration made by the Czar the 6th of laſt Month has been publiſhed here, ſetting forth, that the three Years ſtipulated by the Treaty of Newſtadt for all thoſe who lay Claim to any Lands in the Provinces of Eſtonia and Livonia to take the Oath of Allegiance to the Czar, or ſell their Lands, is prolonged to the End of the Year 1726.

Ratisbon, Oct. 5, N. S. We had Advice from Wurtzburg, that a new Competitor for that Biſhoprick was lately ſet up, viz. Baron Sickengen, the Elector of Mentz's Chamberlain, who had been by his Maſter earneſtly recommended to the Emperour, upon his ſeeing that the Vice-Chancellour Count Schonborn was not like to ſucceed: But by the laſt Letters we have an Account, that the Election at Wurtzburg was over on the 2d Inſtant, in favour of M. de Hutten.

Berlin, Oct. 10, N. S. The Prince of Anhalt arrived here ſome Days ago, having been in Pruſſia for ſome Months, ſettling private Affairs. His Pruſſian Majeſty was to be at Potſdam this Day at Noon; but will return to Wuſterhauſen before he comes hither. The Margrave Lodowick is perfectly recovered, contrary to Expectation.

Lisbon, Oct. 7, N. S. Yeſterday the three Malteſe Men of War, that arrived here the 25th paſt, ſailed for Malta with the Grand Maſter's Nephew on Board: And this Evening the Conde de Pinos, his Imperial Majeſty's late Miniſter at this Court, imbarks on Board an Engliſh Merchant-Ship bound for Naples, from whence he deſigns to proceed to Vienna. To-Morrow his Portugueſe Majeſty, attended by the Lords in waiting, goes to Maafra, to ſee what Progreſs has been made this Summer in the Cathedral building there; which, it is agreed, when finiſhed, will be one of the beſt Pieces of Architecture in Europe.

Hague, Oct. 17. N. S. The States of the Province of Holland have been for ſome Days aſſembled. They have had again under Conſideration the Project for augmenting the Troops of this Republick: But it is ſtill uncertain whether they will come to any Reſolution this Seſſion upon it. In the mean time a Deputation from the States General and the Council of State is going to Friſeland and Groeninghen, in order to preſs thoſe Provinces to ſatisfy their Contingents, both as to the compleating the Troops on their Repartition, and paying the Arrears due to the common Treaſury, which are very conſiderable; theſe being held by ſome to be neceſſary Preliminaries, before concluding any thing about the Augmentation.
